Editor's Note

This is has been a very interesting year, what with the construction and new rules, but we've made a timeless yearbook that everyone can look back on in the future. We're glad to say that the yearbooks are being received on time this year. We can't tell you how many people came up to us and said the dreadful words, "Are the yearbooks going to be on time this year?" We're finally happy to say, yes. We want to thank the members of the yearbook staff and Jarod for all their help, without you all this would have been much more hectic.

The graduating class of 2003 are a very special group of individuals. We're proud to say that we belong to such a close nit group of people; people with goals and talent that surpasses many others. We all are about to go our separate ways, but what really matters is the memories that we've made so far. So, enjoy the yearbook for years to come. We give you all our best wishes and good luck in the future, we know you'll all go far.

Amanda Galbraith and Becky Roth

We would like to give a special mention to the building committee and their tireless efforts and dedication to improveing Turners Falls High School and it's facilities. And, let's not forget about the construction workers who have made all this possible. Thank you all for everything.

Dedication

Goodbye School, You will truley be missed

Our school during the construction.

Judith Brenner, our principal, gives her last goodbuys to the school ot the ground breaking ceremony.

Katy gets her questions answered by the contruction workers while Rob says," Look at the tractor, it's picking up Mr. Boisonneault's car."

Seniors

Class of 2003

Class Officers

President: Thomas Prasol, Vice President: Meaghan Archer, Treasurer: Liz Fisk, Secretary: Allyson Greene, Historian: Alex Delphin

Time just seems to go by faster and faster. Remember when we were freshmen and we thought the time would never come to be close enough to graduation? Now, as seniors, we find ourselves close to that time (if only we could find ourselves parking close to the building!). So many changes!

As freshmen, we has for the first time intergrated classes, experianced our first high school events, and our courageous class grew stronger. The first Booster Day theme was Millenium Milestones, and we created our "Founding of America" float. Lady-in-waiting was Liana Pleasant and our Knight was Scott Masloski. It was a difficult time for the class, but we held together remarkably well.

"Pay close attention: this will be on the MCAS." Yep, sophomore year! Even the anxiety of the dubious honor of being the First For Whom MCAS Counts did not put a damper on our resillient group. Our booster float was "Willie Wonka and the Chocolate Factory," part of which can still be found gracing the mannequin in the middle school. We won 1st place, and no, we did not cheat! The Duke and the Duchess were Jeff Lapointe and Liz Fisk. Later in the year we had our first prom fashion show, and many other fund-raisers, such as the candy-grams; let's just say...cha-ching! Many also went on our class trip to Six Flags that year.

Junior year began, sadly, glued to the television sets in our classrooms after 911. We had a dance and donated our earnings to the firemen's fund. This event, on the verge of adulthood, made us realize even more that we are the future, which was coming soon for us. We began the college search process, talked to recruiters, or otherwisethought about what we will do when we finish high school. The booster day float, "The Game Of Life," once again won 1st place, with its miniatures of the Shady Glen TFHS, and other landmarks which are part of our history. Our Prince was Peter Lapachinski and our Princess was Allyson Greene. The Prom fashion show, holiday breakfast, dances, etc. were all highly successful. We had a great time at the prom at the Hotel Northhampton, with "Remember Me This Way," as the theme.

All of a sudden we were seniors, and life beyond high school became a reality. Our bosster day float which had an uncanny resemblence to McDonald's, won 1st place for the third year in a row, a perfect ending to our bosster days at TFHS. Ans, that's right, we didn't cheat! Our king was Derrick Zellmann and our queen was Meaghan Archer. Again our annual fundraisers were money-making, and the funds were to help subsidize the class trip to Disney World, which will live in our memories for years to come.

It has been impossible, in one page, to describe our classmate' feelings about the past four years. One word does come to mind in our final year: CONSTRUCTION! Never mind that we didn't have a brand new school, even though we watched and heard it go up, our memories are built on emotions, not brick.

To our graduating classmates:

"Who are YOU?" said the Caterpillar.

This was not an encouraging opening for a conversation. Alice replied, rather shyly, "I--I hardly know sir, just at present--at least I know who I WAS when i got up this morning, but I think I must have changed several times since then."

A big thanks to our advisors, Mrs. Prasol and Mrs. West!

Sincerely, The Class of 2003 Officers

Class History

As juniors we have really started to buckle down. With our prom coming up, the reality of how far we are through high school is beginning to set in. The Sheridan Hotel in Springfield is where we'll have our prom. It's a time for pictures to be taken so they can be inbraced and looked back upon at this moment for the rest of our lives.

On another note once again our float has not been able to keep up with the true hard work and dedication that our class is capable of. Even though we may not have placed what we wanted to place this year, the fact remains that next year the compitition will diminish and victory will be but a hop, skip, and a jump away.

This year we have come to the conclusion that choosing a fundraiser is harder then it appears. After many some what successful fundraisers we have yet to find the one fundraiser that works best for us. But we will continue to look for that special fundraiser until we are out of time.

With only one year left, its time for us to start making decisions that could affect the rest of our lives. As seniors next year its time for us as juniors to look ahead and decide if we are going to college, getting a job, or going into the armed forces. With time ticking away the choice seems to have to be made sooner and sooner each day.

Class History

We're halfway done with high school! This was such a busy and exciting year for us as sophmores. We have done several fundraisers, including "Kiss a Pig", a second successful carwash, and the "half court shot." We have started planning for the prom, and done other activities which brought us all closer together. The theme for our Booster Day float was "fastfood" and we built an awesome float featuring Burger King. We worked very hard on it, and can't wait until next year - we'll win for sure. Jamison Bernardski and Lauren Girard represented our class as the duke and duchess. This has been a fun and eventful year. Have a great summer!

Class History

The class of 2006 is off to a very good start at TFHS as freshmen. For Booster Day, although we didnt win this year, our float theme was fast food and the freshmen did A&W Rootbeer as a float. Our Knight and Lady-in-waiting were Ian Herzig and Allison Murphy. Our fundraising included hosting a Valentines day dance. We look forward to coming back next year as sophomores.

Mark

Aug. 18, 1985... the date you were born.
And now here we are 17 years later
the time has now come to watch you make your way into this huge world.
You've had many accomplishments so far and there are many more to follow.
We've seen you as a young boy
learning to ride your bike,
Catch your first fish!
And your Boy Scout years.
As a teen the pride you took from passing your drivers license. Your love of computers, from their components to their capabilities
The pride you had in all your vehicles.
We know you are going to acheive whatever goals that you set for yourself. Mark during all those moments that somehow turned into years we've always been proud of you and supported what you did.
As you take this big step in your life of graduating high school, please know that we are always going to be there for you in good times and rough patches.
And as you make your way in this world,
we know that when you graduate TFHS you will enter the world and show them what you are made of, And that is...the very best!!!
Love, Mom and Dad

To our Dear Mark Jr.
We wish you the very best and success in the future.
We are proud of you.
Take care of your future
"Jalopies!"
Stay happy and keep smiling.
Much love

Greg Augustine

Gregger,
The last 18 years have passed so quickly! You are truly everything a parent could ask for and more.

We're so proud of you in all of your accomplishments. Foremost, being such a good son, kind and caring and a good brother to Kelly too.

We've watched your skills develop before our very eyes, in snowboarding and in soccer, where you put your heart and soul into every game.

Several years ago when you wanted a guiotar we thought it was just a phase that would pass. You began lessons and just soared from there. What a source of pride itis to listen to you play. You're very lucky because you've found somethign your're passionate about and you certainly have the drive for success.

We are behind you all the way in whatever you want to do. We will always be there for you, you know you can count on that. It's the least we can do for making us look like such good parents.

Congratulations and all our love forever,
Mom & Dad

Greg,

Being the kind of person you are, it's no surprise that you've brought some wonderful friends into my life too. Scott, BJ, and Ryan are like sons to me. Rather than being a chore, it was a pleasure to truck everyone around in the van. Sweet Stephanie, I love her too. So many great kids from your class are very special to me and I will always care about them. I thank you for letting me share that part of your life.

I love you,
Mom

Brotha Greg,

You have been such a good brother to me for all these years. I'm glad that we get along so well because I've had tons of fun with you. And it's good to know it's only just the beginning. Great job in the past and good luck in the future!

Congrats & love you,
Kelly

Kara Knapp

Kara,

Only yesterday you were so small. Now you're all grown up. We're all so proud of you. We hope you succeed in everything you want to do in life. Don't let anything hold you back. We all love you very much.

It's hard to believe you're graduating from high school. Only yesterday you were riding the bus to Gill School. There have been ups and downs, but you're turning out to be one great guy! Life is full of opportunities and challenges that we know you'll meet head on. Remember that we will always love you and be here for you.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Sam

Stephanie Brown

Stephanie,

You've come a long way and we are so proud of you. We can't even begin talking about everything that you've brought to our family. Remember it's important to be there for people and friends because someday they will be there for you. We can't solve all the problems in the world but we can make people smile and make our surroundings a better place. We know you will succeed in what ever you choose to do in life because that's you. When you make your mind up its set. We will always support you in any decisions you should make. Just remember how much we will always love you.

Lots of LOVE,
Mom and Dad

Throughout the past years we've becom closer and closer. I love you so much, ev though it doesn't seem it sometimes. I kn that as you go through college and the re of your life you will have no trouble mak friends and finding success. Thank you f being the great sister that you are, and tha you for all the helpful advice you have gi me along the way.

Love Kellie

Steph,

Thanks for being a good sister and always thinking of me. You always bring me home surprises and take me to the movies.

Love,
Scott

Stephi,

Where do I start. We've been through so much these past three years. Th good, the bad, but no matter what we always worked things out. I just war t say where ever you end up in life, you're going to be successful. There's so many great qualities about you that's going to get you somewhere in the future. Don't let anybody stand in the way of your dreams. Follow what yo heart tells you, because it's your heart that makes you such a great person.

Love always,
Brad

Jessica Lynn Favreau

Jessica,

From the day I brought you into this world, I thought of how beautiful you are and my little princess with lots of curls. And I cryed the day you started school. We've had our ups and downs, but I still will always love you when you're up there graduating. You will have made me so proud. Remember all your dreams will come true.

Love Always,
Mom

Jessica Lynn Favreau

You're a great granddaughter, one to be very proud of. It seems like only yesterday you were in first grade and now you're graduating.

Keep that smile and keep the faith and you'll go a long way. Your also a best friend.

Love you lots,
Gram and Grampa Holden

Jessica,

I remember the first day you started school, you were smiling away with that specail smile. Now you're all grown up, tears run down my face, I realize that you're no longer my little princess. You have turned into a wonderful young lady with a good future to look forward to . Remember to always keep your smile.

Love Always,
Dad

Hi Natalie,
Seasons greetings to you and may all your wishes come true. I am writing on behalf of my friends and myself. We want you to know that it was of nice benefits working beside you in the tabacco this summer. You are a very good hard working person, so we couldn't have asked to work besides a better person but you. Natalie, we also want to say best wishes on your graduation. You are a special girl with a lot of talents. So please reach for the stars and seek your goals. Congratulations and good luck in the future. We also pray that God's richest blessings will be with you now and forever.

Natalie,
Congratulations. I was blessed with a spirited, loving, and caring daughter. You and I bonded throughout the years. Your great smile and your sense of humor, with your practical jokes made laughter enjoyable. Also, you were always willing to help to lend a helping hand. Natalie, you work very hard in everything that you did to accomplish what you were doing. Your a seeker. Natalie, always look for those ladybugs which will bring you good luck wherever you may travel. Reach out for your goals. There will be many challenges your lifetime, some will be rewarding and others may not. You'll make it through them all. Natalie, your a strong minded person with a loving heart. The world is waiting for you. Go get them girl!!!!

A dream is the foundation of a goal; fulfillment of a goal creates a sense of accomplishment, self-confidence and pride.

May all your dreams be large, your goals fulfilled and your accomplishments many. Do your best, take pride in all you do and face the challenges that life may bring with a sense of Humor.
Congratulations Kyle, Love Aunt Becky

Just yesterday, I held you in my arms.
Your bright sunny smile lighting up our days.
How quickly the time has passed.
Now here you are a young man ready to take on the world.
With a bright, eager mind you will meet the many challenges of life.
Challenges that you will meet head on,
Making you into the man that God desires you to be.
With many mixed emotions you will set out on your Journey, that we call life.
Keep your sense of direction and your good sense of humor and you will go far.
I love you and am very proud of you
Lots of love, mom

You finally made it!
I knew you would
I've seen you change
In so many ways
I am very proud of you.
Keep up the Good work.

Dear Kyle
The day you were born
The heavens rejoiced.
Angels sang in one clear voice.
We knew you were special,
What would you be?
Maybe an architect or E.M.T.
Your potential is of service great.
Walking through darkness
Your courage does not break.
Carrying a light for all humanity.
This is the man named Kyle we see.
God danced the day you were born.
Love always,

Amanda Galbraith

Dear Amanda,

You made the biggest change in my life the day you came into this world, I became a father, a dad. I no longer had to care for myself, but now I had a life to care for. Seeing you grow up was an experience that I am glad to have had the opportunity to witness. The unconditional love I had as a child, I know passed onto you and it felt great to be giving it.. From the long nights holding and rocking you to sleep, the nights concerned for your welfare as you started dating, you have never, not been my little "Pumpkin Head". I see great strength of spirit and will in you, that impresses me so much and makes me proud to be your father.

Make Your Mark, Go Girl!!

Love,
Dad

Amanda,
Always believe in who you are. Your hard work and talents have paid off. The great thing in this life is not where we stand now but it what direction we choose to go. This graduation is the beginning of a great adventure. You're moving on. No matter where your life's work takes you, I know you'll do yourself and whatever profession you choose proud.
Love,

Amanda,

You're a great sister! Good luck in the future and have fun

Love, Dani

Dear Amanda,

It has been my pleasure to watch you over the years as you have blossomed. You make bragging about you easy. By being the oldest, you are a role-model. By doing what you do, you make us all proud. You have strength, determination, and maturity beyond your years. You are beautiful inside and out. You've already got all you'll ever need to be a success.

Love you, Auntie Cindy

Where did the years go Amanda? It seems only yesterday that you were singing the Barney song, twirling across the stage in your pink tutu with a crown of flowers in your hair. The days of Barbie and Pooh have passed, the "whatever" days and your hip-hop phase, now your room is wallpapered with photos of friends, Geogia O'Keefe and suns and moons. You've already had your first date, first cellphone, first car and job. Now comes life as an adult. The world changes as our tomorrows become our yesterdays, but my love for you never changes. From that first moment when with tears in my eyes and a gulp in my throat, I held you, I knew you were special. I'm sure your inner light will cast rainbows wherever you go and the world will recieve your caring with a kiss. Congratualtions, darling! You're a real winner!

I simply adore you,

Grammy B.

Tim,
We are so proud of the man you have become. You make us smile with your Constant, Whistling, Singing, Train drawings and Piano Playing at Jen and Gary's with John, Ryan and Thomas (OUR BOY'S). But most of all, "Those smiling eyes we love so much."
Life's road is long and wide Tim, but you have a wonderful adventure ahead of you. So enjoy, be happy, never forget how much you are loved, and remember there is no better place then home. We will always be there for you.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Jason, & Jen

Maria Siano

Maria,
Well, finally your graduation. You've been waiting for this day, but in truth we look at it with all mixed emotions: Pride for all your accomplishments, Joy & happiness for the way you have enriched our lives and yes some sadness because we realize that you are growing up. We know you will face whatever lies ahead with the same determination you always have, since you were a little girl. Remember ~ Believe in yourself; Be grateful; Never lose your wonderful sense of humor; Stay happy and no matter what we love you.
Congratulations!

Love,
Mom & Dad

P.S. Can I have a hug?

Maria,
Congratulations! You are a great sister. You always kep me laughing - from sabataging each other's mom to those crazy photo shoots. I know you'll be a star. Keep on Rockin.

Love,
Nicole

I think this outfit requires a few minor alterations.

Children are like kites. You spend a lifetime trying to get them off the ground. You run with them until you're both breathless. They crash - you add a longer tail. They hit the rooftop - you pluck them out of the gutter. You patch and comfort, adjust and teach. You watch them lift by the wind and assure them someday they'll fly. Finally they are airborne, but they need more string. You keep letting it out and with each twist of the ball of twine, there is a sadness that goes with the joy because the kite becomes more distant and somehow you know that it won't be long before that beautiful creature will snap the lifeline that bound you together and soar as it was meant to soar - free and alone. Eighteen years is a very short time to teach a child everything a parent needs to. There were many times when we were never sure if you were actually on our planet listening to the message. But I'm happy to say that I think you were! You have grown into a beautiful, smart and talented young woman. You set goals and high standards for yourself that dad and I hope you'll continue all your life. We're very proud to have you as our daughter and encourage you to always follow your dreams. Remember..."Always be a first rate version of yourself instead of a second rate version of somebody else" [Judy Garland]

Nana and Pa with Ally and Jill

Al,

If I sat down and thought about you and I, what comes to mind is all the trouble you used to get me into. Every time Mom was looking for something, she would come yell at me because you told her that I had it, when you had it the whole time. Oh wait, nothing's changed, you still blame it on me and I don't even live at home!!! But when I think about you graduating, I'm so proud of you (even if it does make me feel old). You have worked so hard and deserve everything life has to offer you. Wherever life takes you, always remember that I'm here for you and I love you.

Dear Allyson,

Where have the years gone? It seems like yesterday you were entering high school and now the end is near. Graduation will bring many changes for you. It's a time for leaving the familiar and to explore new horizons. A time to look back at your favorite memories and looking forward to making new ones. A time to say "goodbye" to old friends and "hello" to new ones. Graduation marks the end of one chapter in your life but it really is just the beginning of the whole new wonderful future that we wish for you.

All our love,
Nana & Pa

"Sisters forever"

Dear Allyson,

Seems like yesterday you ran screaming to your parents when Steve and I walked in your house. Seems like yesterday you were the admired cousin with all the cool dolls and the creative play. Now you are the mature, admired niece and cousin preparing to make your dreams a reality. We're sure your self-confidence and ambition will guide you through a successful life. We love you and our thought and wishes are with you. Love, Carolyn, Kimberly, Joshua, and Kristen

Becky

Dame

Becky,

Where did the past 18 years go to? Our shy little girl has grown into a confident young woman. You made your Dad and me very proud over the years. You always put 110% into everything - school, sports, family, frindships. I remember you with your ball and glove from the time you were a toddler, teasing Dad to play with you. Know that Dad will always be with you.

Your whole life is waiting for you. Enjoy every minute of it.

Love, Mom

Becky,

Thanks for always being such a good older sister, I know we don't always get along but I have had many wonderful memories with you. I know that you will accomplish great things in your life. Congratulations on graduating and good luck in college and beyond. I LOVE YOU!

Love your little sis,
Michelle

Congratulations Becky! We are so proud of you! It is truly remarkable what you have accomplished at such a young age. Your excellence on the athletic fields are rivaled only by your brilliance in the classroom. You truly have a wonderful future ahead of you. Good luck!

That could only be our Buntin' Beck!

Congratulations honey! We are so proud of you and all you have accomplished.
Love, Auntie Linda and Cousin Sean (who takes no credit for the bad poetry)

Becky,

We have all watched you grow up into a beautiful, intelligent, athletic, kind and loving young woman. Your endurance and excellence on and off the field have always amazed us. Your Dad would be so proud of your achievements as we all are. We wish you well and remember I hope you attend a school that has lots of shopping nearby.
Love, Grammy, Aunt Christine, Uncle Dave, Ryan and Russell

Ryan,
We're so proud of you. With all the challanges and obstacles you've encountered this past year, you never allowed them to cast a shadow on your dreams and goals. You've shown you're a special young man.

Always remember that you are never given a wish without being given the power to make it come true. Reach for the stars!

We love you,
Mom, Dad, Justin, Gram, and Gramp

Ryan,
Congratulations! You did it, you graduated. I'm so proud of you. I know that you can accomplish anything you put your mind to. You've made my first 2 years of high school unforgettable. We've had a lot of ups and downs in the past, but we've also made a lot of great memories along the way. You're my best friend (Skip). I love you and I will always be there for you.

Keep Smiling!

Derrick,

We have enjoyed being a part of your life as we've watched you through the years. A young boy playing T-ball, to a young man in high school sports. School plays were an enjoyable bonus. You have become an exceptional young man that we are proud to call, our grandson.

With love and pride,
Gram and Gramps

Derrick Zellmann

Derrick,

We've watched you grow into an amazing person and we are so proud to have you as our son. You are strong in your beliefs, yet so caring to others. We have enjoyed watching you play the sports you love so much, from T-Ball to Varsity Sports. You have made us so proud in everything you do, whether its academics, school spirit, your dedication to family, friends and work or just being a great big brother to your sisters.

Your dreams are our dreams too, and distance doesn't matter, your always in our hearts.

We Love You,
Mom and Dad

)errick,

The last sixteen years have been very memorable, the aughing, joking, teasing, and fighting. But the day I will ıever forget is 2/14/96, when you sat by my side on that old winter day. Thanks for being a great big brother and est of luck to you always.

Love Alayna

Derrick

From your funny jokes, to your new words, to your amazing card tricks, I'll always be the one to laugh. It's so much fun being your little sister. You are the best big brother. Best of Luck in College.

Love Lauryn

CONGRATULATIONS MEGAN!

Take time to wish upon a star and don't ever forget... for even a day... how very special you are.

Dear Megan,
Growing a garden and raising a daughter both require love and nurturing, but there comes a day when you must simply let go and have faith.
Later, when you are surrounded by flowers and discover that the child you raised blossomed into a wonderful, caring woman, with a strong and beautiful spirit...
All that's left to do is be grateful and rejoice in the miracle that is life!

Thank you Megan for blessing our hearts with joy and filling our home with so much love.
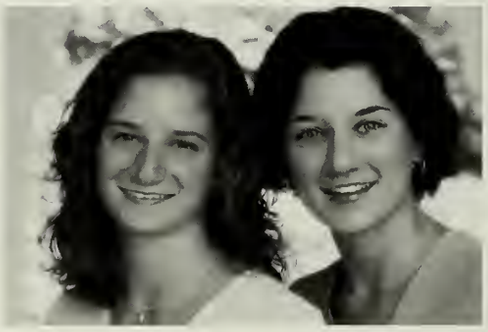
Love, Dad & Mom



Megan,

To my Sister, Best Friend and Confidant:
I'm so proud of the beautiful and strong woman you have become and feel so fortunate to be able to call you my Sister Woogi, Coolio, and Ski. I love you very much.

Kristin Currier

Graduation is a special time for feeling so much pride, and for saying aloud the lovely thoughts we hold for you inside.

It is a time to honor you, to stand up and cheer, for all of your accomplishments and hard work that got you here.

And so with pride and happiness we shed some happy tears, as we watch our once little girl begin her grown up years.

Know that we will always be here for everything you do, and know we'll always love you Kristin and are so proud of you.

Love,
Mom & Dad

I wish that I could remember the day that you became my little sister. I would love to have known the feelings that I had towards you. Was it love, jealousy, or anticipation for the future? What would you bring to my life? We have created many memories throughout the years. Remember "Puppy Power," your paper towel Barbie bed, and singing in the camper Salisbury Beach (this one will stay in the family!) Hey, we had fun! We will always have fun! Thinking about this now has made me realize that it is love, jealousy, and anticipation for the future that I feel for you. I am so proud of you! Continue growing into the beautiful person that I know you can be. The beautiful woman that you are already becoming!
Congratulations Krissy!
I love you!
Kelly

Michelle,
Here you stand on the edge of change
Sometimes knowing your way, sometimes not

As you were growing up you faced many changes
Some were easy and some were hard
Your strength and character has helped you grow
Into the wonderful young lady you are today

Life is not always predictable
Just remember to always follow your heart
It will keep you going in the right direction
Love, Mom

Michelle,
It has been a joy
To watch you grow
To who you are today
A young adult
On your way
To college and a career

You will be on your own
Soon to find out more
About yourself
And the world around you

Do all that you can
To achieve your goals
And be yourself
Love, Dad

Michelle,
Congratulations -
I love you, and
I will always be there for you.
Follow your dreams
and have fun doing it!

Michelle,
Remember the birthday parties when we had the clown come and entertain all the kids. It was great fun. Then we sent the Really Big Red Balloon up to Papa because he also had a birthday during that week.
I will always remember you and the kids playing school and post office on my front porch when I babysat you and Jen.
It was awesome.
Love you, Gram

Danielle,
I've watched you grow from an infant with your binky - to a toddler with all those toys, from Doosy & the Oz to the back street boys - I know it's been rough but you got by - Now take that giant step and spread your wings and fly. Best Wishes for all that you set out to do.
Love ya, Auntie Diane

Danielle,
We have been through thick and thin together throughout our lives. I can't believe you're all grown up. I'm going to miss you a lot. You are my best friend and you've been there for me through everything. I hope you fulfill your every wish and dream. I love you.
Your favorite cousin, Jilly

Congratulations Doose, good luck with everything you pursue in your future.
Love, Kristen and Jeff

Danielle,
I can't believe these years have passed so fast. I want you to know that you make me proud to be your father. I know you are prepared to meet challenges of your life as a young woman. Be true to yourself and all you encounter. Keep you mind strong, clean, and positive, and good things will happen. Follow your heart and it will lead you down the right road in your journey through life.
Congratulations and Good Luck!
Love always, Dad

Danielle,
Congratulations! You made it. Good luck with what you decide to do in the future. Don't forget to invite me to some college parties.
Love u Lots, Cambrie

Danielle,
I'm so proud for you after all of the good and bad times we've had. You've been there. I luv you so much. Good luck and do your best in everything.

Alex

Alex,
For 17 years I have watched you laugh and cry. Over the years, the laughter over just plain silliness was supplemented by laughter over little ironies, private jokes and your own mistakes. You have used your humor to help sooth pained souls, and the tears you shed in compassion for others supplanted tears shed for yourself. It is the compassion in you that fills your eyes with sadness over a hurt animal, and fills your eyes with joy in the triumphs of others. No matter how you grow and change over the years, may this quality reamin constant. This, along with the ability to be silly, will serve you well, but more importantly, they will serve others well. Laugh and cry at the unexpected, because someday your mother's ashes (and even her eyelashes) will be resting in a little yellow jar. I will miss you so much, Alex : your messy room will seem very empty.
Love , Mom

Alex, sister,
I can't believe that my "baby" sister is graduating already! You never cease to amaze me - I have always admired your humor, your creativity, and your deep compassion and love for everyone and everything. Those qualities will take you wherever you want to go! May our days of watching Friends and Family Ties, playing rummy, going on food sprees, jumping on beds, and dinging our hearts out never end - I look forward to that every time I come home. Good Luck at school; I hope you know that I'm always here for you when you need anything. Thank you for being the best sister, and , most of all, a friend. I love you and am proud of you. Love,
Halissa (p.s. "Where's my chapstick?!")

Dear Alex,
When you were in second grade (and very little), you wanted a regulation-height basketball hoop for Christmas. The first day or so after it went up, you complained that it was too high and impossible to hit. But you practiced hard, and in less than a week you pronounced that it was just right after all. So remember as you move out from this part of your life, set your goals high, work hard to shoot for them, and you'll find you'll score most of the time!
Much Love, Aunt Ruth

Greetings from Ireland:
Congratulations! I only have 9 years to go until I graduate from high school! Lily and I only have 6 years! Leon Let's see...that means I have only - 35 years behind! Have a great senior year. Heather Smith

Heather,
What can I say? These last few years have gone by so fast. You are definitely growing up and becoming such a strong woman. I wish you the best of luck in whatever you pursue, and you can always be sure that I will be right beside you every step of your journey. You've been such a great sister to me and I love you very much. College is great; live it up!
Love, Stephanie

Heather,

You are our shining star- sparkly and bright. We love you very much and are proud of the intelligent, caring, and amazing young woman you have become. You are capable of accomplishing all of your dreams and wishes - only the sky is the limit. We wish you happiness and success in whatever you choose to do and remember that your family and friends will always be there for you as you reach for the stars.
Love, Mom and Dad

The Gill Girls

Amanda, Stephanie, Marcie, Gredel, Emily, Jennie and Jenn

We've laughed togther, cried together and grown together. I can still remember the days back in Gill Elementary when we fought over the same boys, (Greg and Peter) or when we got in little squabbles over the stupidest things. Nobody really ever had a best friend because we were all really close and that is what I think makes us so special as a whole. We all are different in our own ways, and we've all had our fazes (shall I remind you of Jenn's period of bright purple lipstick with the black lip liner or the hippie faze when we all wore colored sunglasses and had little braids in our hair with tinfoil to keep them together.) but in the end we've stayed together. We've had those experiances that you'll always want to tell your kids, like the time I pierced Gredel's ears at Recess with the needle we stole from the science labs, we all worked as a whole on that project, each person with a different job (Jennie with the earring and someone else to grab the icicles to numb her ears). There was the time I tried to float down the brooke behind my house in a sled and as I was drifting down stream, Stephanie was just standing there laughing at me. We can look back on so many things that have happened in the past between us, and nobody can ever break those bonds that will always tie us together. I admire each and every one of you in many different ways, the way Jenn and I have always used our minds to fight with each other but in reality we are so much alike that I consider her one of the people I can always connect with. I admire Marcie for her compassion and warmheart, because I know that whatever happens, she's not the person to judge in any way, she's the one I can tell anything. I admire Stephanie for the courage in her. I've seen her grow as a beautiful and independent person who I consider to be one of my closest friends. I admire Emily for the way she can make me laugh with all the silly little things she does when I'm feeling the worst (like to he time at Bickford's when the straw was caught in her hair). I admire Jennie for her awkward but oh so brillant presence. She has a ora about her that just gives of happiness and at other times she makes you want to scream with all the oldies she listens to. And lastly, I admire Gredel, because when I'm at the lowest I think I can be she comes to my rescue like no other. I don't think that I will ever find friends like you in this world ever again, and I want you all to know that no matter what path you chose or what journey takes you far and near, we'll always be as close as we are right now, because our friendship and love for one another is timeless and classic. Good luck in the future, whereever that may take you.
Love, Amanda

Thomas R. Prasol

Dear Thomas,

Where has the time gone? It seems like yesterday you were a small child with an infectious smile. Today, you are a young man with that same smile. Your smile is your trademark- it is the first thing people notice about you.

Throughout the years we have watched you grow with pride and happiness. Now that you are graduating, you will be pursuing your own goals. Choose your goals carefully and work hard to achieve success; don't give up if you encounter difficulty. Continue to smile, laugh and be happy. Most importantly, continue to dream, dreams can come true.

Your family will always be here to support you and love you. Remember always, we are proud to call you our son.

Love, Mom and Dad

Tom,

Whether it's playing Blitz for the couch on Turkey Day, filming Turner's newest Blockbuster, or just plain horsing around, I know I couldn't ask for a better brother. It's hard to believe you're already graduating; I can tell you though, we can expect great things from you!

Dan

Thomas,

Wow! I Can't believe you're already graduating! I have complete confidence in you and I know you will achieve whatever you set your mind to. Know that, if you ever need anything I am only a phone call away. When you become President I'll vote for you or when you become Dr. Tom I'll recommend you to all of my friends.

Love, Liz

Always remember...
"If you don't feel something strongly, you're not going to achieve it."
~ George W. Bush

"Friends are the most important part of your life. Treasure the laughter, but most importantly treasure the memories."

"Sometimes in life you find special friends. Someone who changes your life by just being a part of it. Someone who makes you laugh until you can't stop. Someone who makes you believe that there really is good in the world. Someone who convinces you that there really is an unlocked door just waiting for you to open it. This is forever friendship. When you're down and the world seems dark and empty, your forever friends lift you up in spirit and make that dark empty world suddenly seem bright and full. Your forever friends get you through the hard dark times, the sad times and the confused times. If you turn and walk away your forever friends hold your hand and tell you that everything is going to be okay. And if you find such friends, you feel happy and complete because you need no worry. You have forever friends, and forever has no end."

"We all take different paths in life, but no matter where we go, we take a little of each other everywhere."

Kristina Studzinski

There are times in your life when you need a sister and there are times in your life
when you need a friend.
I hope that during those times you needed
a sister
and those times you needed a friend
I was there for you,
because you were always there for me.,
So from the past into the future
Sisters and Friends
Always Forever.

Ally,
I have shared many special memories with you, you mean so much to me and you will always have a special place in my heart. You are a strong, hard-working, dedicated woman and I know that whatever goals in life you set your mind to, you will accomplish. You mean the world to me and I will always be here for you. Best of luck. I love you.
Love Always,

Dear Derrick~my first favorite,
Who would have guessed that in 1993 when you entered my class, you would have made such a significant impact on my life? After a great year with you, I was lucky to have your equally special sisters in my class. Because of these relationships, your mom and dad came into my life.
Ron, Riley, Emma, and I are fortunate to have the Zellmanns in our lives. We love you Derrick, and we are so proud of you.
Much Love,
Sharyn, Ron, Riley, Emma
